

Collins Chabane Local Municipality Mayor Cllr Shadrack Maluleke delivering a message of Condolences during the Funeral of Simon Matsatsela Sambo at Phaphazela village yesterday. Matsatsela, a well known guitarist specialist who worked with the likes of Macingelani , DJ Khwaya, Patson Chauke, White Umoja , Penny Penny and many others was laid to rest at his home yesterday. Mayor Maluleke said the hostility in the Xitsonga music industry created instability and impeded development initiatives that could have improved the lives of many musicians. The Mayor has also contributed immensely in preparation for the burial of Matsatsela and has further urged all members of creative arts to unite and work together. He was accompanied by the leader of ward Cllr Hlamalani and different stakeholders within the Municipality, amongst other people who attended the funeral is the ward councillor under Greater Giyani municipality Mr Erick Nkovani (Penny-Penny).
