

Mayor Shadrack Maluleke commit to support Vuwani Schools as he closes 2024 Back to School Campaign by visiting Tshinavhe and Ongedagte High schools:

Mayor of Collins Chabane Local municipality continues with his Back to School campaign which is aimed at promoting the value of education in the remote areas of Vuwani. The visits marks the final day of back to school activities which started on the 17th of January. The Mayor has pleaded with all stakeholders to mobilise their support in encouraging their respective communities to take a keen interest in their children's education. " I like to plead with our parents and all community stakeholders to speak in one voice that in a democratic South Africa, everyone has the right to learn, while we expect our future leaders to make it known that it is their right to learn", He said.

"We want parents, teachers and traditional leaders to understand that children are better off in school and that all children should also be educated," she said.

The Mayor was joined by the Speaker of the Municipality Cllr Thina Mbedzi, Members of Executive Committee , Youth council and various local committees.
