

As we observe International Fraud Awareness Week, we reflect on the responsibility we all share in fostering a culture of transparency, accountability, and ethical conduct.

WHY PEOPLE COMMIT FRAUD?

THE FRAUD TRIANGLE

The Fraud Triangle by Donald R. Cressey

Protecting our organization's resources, reputation, and service delivery is not the duty of a select a few, but a collective obligation. Every official plays a critical role in safeguarding public Trust through transparency, compliance, and ethical behavior.
